NOTICE REGARDING INFORMATION PRACTICES

In considering this Application, Reliance Standard Life Insurance Company ("we", "us" or "our") collects certain information about all proposed insureds ("you" or "your"). The precise information varies according to the amount and type of coverage you apply for. Generally, we seek information about your: (1) age; (2) occupation; (3) physical condition; (4) medical history; (5) hobbies; and (6) other relevant activities.

You are the most important source of information, but we may also verify or collect information on you or your family from: (1) physicians; (2) other health care providers; (3) employers; (4) other insurers to which you have applied; (5) consumer investigative organizations; and (6) the Medical Information Bureau ("MIB").

The MIB is a not-for-profit organization of life insurance companies which operates an information exchange for its members. This information may alert us to a need for further investigation, but under MIB rules such information cannot be used: (1) either wholly or in part to increase the premium for insurance; or (2) to deny issuance of insurance.

We may collect information by: (1) phone; (2) correspondence; or (3) personal contact.

Information will be treated as confidential. Reliance Standard Life Insurance Company or its reinsurers may, however, with your authorization make a brief report to the MIB. If you apply to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, the MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information in its file. The information supplied to other member companies may alert them to a need for further investigation.

In some circumstances, however, information may be released to third parties without your authorization (with the exception of the MIB). These include persons or organizations who are: (1) performing business functions for us; (2) conducting actuarial or scientific studies or audits; or (3) our reinsurers. We or our reinsurers may also release information to other life insurance companies to whom you apply for life or health insurance coverage, or to whom a claim for benefits is submitted. Please be assured that although such disclosures may occur, they are not always or even often made. When a disclosure is necessary, only as much information as is reasonably necessary to achieve the intended purpose will be disclosed.

You have the right to acquire and, if necessary, correct any personal information we or the MIB collect. Upon written request to us, we will within 30 days of receipt: (1) inform you of the nature and substance of the recorded information; (2) permit personal viewing and copying of the information in our possession; (3) disclose the identities of those persons such information has been disclosed to within the last two years; and (4) provide you with procedures for correction, amendment or deletion of the recorded information. Medical information will be disclosed to a physician that you choose. You may write to us for a fuller explanation of our information practices.

You may also contact the MIB via its website (www.mib.com) or by telephone to arrange for disclosure of any information it may have on you. The MIB's toll-free telephone number is 866-692-6901 (TTY 866-346-3642 for hearing impaired). If you question the accuracy of information in the MIB's file, you may contact the MIB in writing and seek correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act.
